ASHWORTH DISMISSED.

The Mayor Thinks Him Too Hasty For the Force.

The trial of Officer Ashworth, who was charged with unlawfully assaulting J. A. Hilbert and W. G. Baughman on the night of the 18th instant, took place yesterday afternoon before Mayor Evans.

Messrs. Baughman and Hilbert stated the manner in which the officer acted toward them. They swore that Hilbert had his hands in his pockets when Ashworth struck him and that they were not violating any law at the time.

Officer Ashworth testified that he met these gentlemen and that they cursed him. He ordered them to go on and started to arrest Baughman when Hilbert took hold of his coat. The officer then struck him. Several policemen testified that Mr. Ashworth was a brave and careful officer.

Mr. Lunsford opened the case for the prosecution and was followed by Captain Berkeley for the defense. Mr. Randolph closed the argument with an eloquent speech severely commenting on Ashworth's use of his club. After a moment's hesitation Mayor Evans rendered his decision.

He said that it was his opinion that the origin of the trouble was in the gentlemen drinking a few glasses of beer. But considering the hour of night and the locality, he considered that the officer had acted rather hastily, and was of the opinion that Ashworth thought the men were going to assault him and attacked them first.

He also thought that Ashworth's weak point was that he let his temper get beyond his control, as has been demonstrated at other times besides this occurrence, and although he was in many respects a good officer, a man that could not control his temper was not fit for a policeman. He would, therefore, have to remove him from the police force, subject to the ratification of Council.

After the trial Ashworth said he did not intend to fight the matter before Council, but was going back to his home in Eastern Virginia.

JEFF DOOLEY'S ILLNESS.

He Has Consumption, But Will Probably Live to Expiate His Crime.

Every few days the report that Jeff Dooley, the murderer of Officer Tom Mabry, who was sentenced by the Hustings Court to be hanged on April 8th, is dead obtains circulation here. Jeff is still in the land of the living and as consumption, the disease he is said to be afflicted with, works with exasperating slowness, the probabilities are that Jeff, unless Governor McKinney respite him, will pull hemp at the appointed time.
Sergeant Early saw him Sunday and confirms the report of Officer Flick, that he is weak and emaciated.

Horsehead Bill Davis, who is to be hung at Tazewell Court House April 1st for the murder of a Pocahontas policeman, wraps a blanket about his head whenever a stranger appears near his cell. This covering will give place to the hangman's black cap, however, in a few days and after it is displaced Horsehead Bill will be given another and more durable covering.

A CHARTER GRANTED

To the Roanoke Sale and Exchange Stables.

Judge Dupuy, of the new circuit court, granted his first charter yesterday, and it was admitted to record in the clerk's office. The Roanoke Sale and Exchange Stables were chartered, with a capital of $20,000, and the following officers and directors: George F. Dyer, president; H. N. Dyer, secretary; John T. Trout, treasurer; the officers and P. L. Terry, directors.

The new company recently purchased the stock of Dyer Bros. & Thomas, and will buy, sell and exchange horses, mules and stock of every kind.

Death of Mrs. Morgan.

M. H. and J. T. Morgan received a telegram yesterday evening from their brother, Dr. J. H. Morgan, at Bluefield, W. Va., conveying the sad intelligence of the death of his wife, Mrs. Kate Morgan, nee Wiley, of Salem. No particulars of her illness and death were given. Dr. Morgan was, until a few months ago, a practicing physician and a member of the board of health of this city.

A Cot for Railroad Men.

The ladies auxiliary of the Railroad Men's Christian Association will give a supper at Fuqua's old stand on Commerce street, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 23d and 24th. The proceeds will be devoted to endow a room in the new hospital for railroad men.

Investigating the City Engineer's Office.
The board of public works is devoting as much time as possible to the investigation of the city engineer's office, but is making slow progress in consequence of other pressing duties. It is probable that a report will be made to Council at the next meeting.

Crossings That Need Attention.

The crossings at the intersection of Park street and Third avenue s. w. are under mud and water, to the annoyance and inconvenience of pedestrians. It would cost the city only a small amount of money to make the necessary repairs.

Have Removed Their Office.

Van Horn & Greene have removed their stock of mantels, grates, etc., from the Asberry building to the west room of the Stewart block, opposite the postoffice, on Campbell street.

A Growing Lodge.

Roanoke Lodge, No. 197, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, initiated eight new candidates last night.

Mr. S. H. HEIRONIMUS, of the dry goods firm of Heironimus & Brugh, is now in the Eastern cities laying in the later novelties pertaining to the spring and summer season, preparatory to their second and final opening, which will be held early in April, due notice of which will be given through the usual channels.

A UNIQUE PLAN.

The Way Money Will be Raised for the New Christ Church.

At the last regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Christ Church, Episcopal, it was decided to adopt a rather unique plan of raising funds for the advancement of its work in organizing a new congregation and the building of a church edifice.

Each member has obligated herself to earn one dollar between now and Easter Monday, April 17, and with that dollar is to be turned in a minute history of just how the money was earned.

The plan has been appropriately named "The Historical Dollar," and its history is to be read by the one who earned it at the April meeting of the society, which meeting will most likely take the form of an evening sociable, at the home of one of the members, but of which one has not yet been decided upon.

It is expected that quite a handsome sum will be realized from the efforts of the members. Certainly quite an enjoyable evening will be passed in listening to the history of each dollar.

The financial prospects of this movement are certainly remarkably fair, considering it is but a year since the idea of a new church was talked of.
The society started with a small band of ten ladies. It now has over a hundred earnest workers, whose every effort is directed toward success.

To Institute a Council.

Capt. T. C. Morton, of Staunton, grand commander of the Legion of Honor of Virginia, has been in the city several days securing the requisite number of signatures to an application for a charter to institute a council here.
He has a number of names, and is confident of instituting a council in Roanoke soon. The Legion of Honor is a beneficial order, paying relief and death benefits to its members or their heirs. The captain is a hustler in this, as in all other matters he undertakes.

The New Railway System.

There is nothing new in street railway circles. The new company is awaiting the arrival of an electrical engineer, upon whose suggestions, plans and estimates the contemplated improvements, to cost about $150,000, will be ordered.
When completed, no city in the State will be able to boast of so fine a system of street railway as the "Magic City" of Virginia.

Dearth in the Matrimonial Market.

Clerk Brooke, of the Hustings Court, has issued only thirty-eight marriage licenses since January 1st of the present year. Of this number the colored people are in the majority, the score standing, twenty to eighteen whites.
There is a dearth in the Roanoke matrimonial market, but the indications are that the early future will witness a marked improvement.

Lester Piano.

This is, indeed, a wonderful piano.
It has created a sensation in music circles. The idea of a strictly first-class piano at $450 and $400 is remarkable.
This is just what the Lester is. You cannot afford to buy a piano before seeing the Lester. Hobbie Music Company, sole dealers. Each piano war-
